

Three schools named in Horizon West area of Orange County for the 2019-20 school year

- Castleview Elementary is the name for a new school located at 9131 Taborfield Avenue in Orlando. The school relieves Bay Lake and Sand Lake elementary schools. The school community voted on three possible names: Castleview Elementary School, Lake Mabel Elementary School and Seven Seas Elementary. Castleview was chosen because Cinderella's Castle at the Magic Kingdom is visible from Reams Road near the school.
- Horizon West Middle is a new school located at 8200 Tattant Boulevard in Windermere. The school relieves Bridgewater Middle School. The school community voted on three possible names: Horizon West Middle School, Lakeside Village Middle School and Windermere Middle School. The name Horizon West Middle was chosen because the school is located in Horizon West. The school was previously known as Site 37-M-SW-4.
- Water Spring Elementary is the name for a new school located at 16000 Water Spring Blvd. in Winter Garden. The school relieves Keene's Crossing and Independence elementary schools. The school community voted on three possible names: Horizon West Elementary, Storey Grove Elementary and Water Spring Elementary. Water Spring Elementary was chosen to match the name of the street the school is located on. The school was previously known as Site 49-E-W-4.
