Lake Como Lions to dedicate new K-8 school

WHAT: Lake Como School, one of two new K-8 schools in Orange County Public Schools this year, will celebrate their dedication Wednesday. The event celebrates the new campus, which combined the Lake Como and Kaley elementary schools and added middle schoolers for the first time. The school was built on the site of the former Lake Como Elementary. The dedication will include student musical performances, a ribbon cutting and remarks from the School Board chair, Board Member and Superintendent.

WHEN: 9:15 a.m., Wednesday, November 14

WHERE: Lake Como School, 2450 E. Gore St., Orlando, FL 32806
