News from Orange County Public Schools

- WHAT: Groundbreaking and construction update for Oak Hill ES
Of the 13 new and replacement schools that OCPS will be opening in August, six of them are in District 5, the county's urban core. On Wednesday, District 5 Board Member Kathleen "Kat" Gordon is hosting a groundbreaking and construction update for Oak Hill ES, a Title I school on South Hiawassee Road. Families and community members will get an update on the construction so far and toss dirt with golden shovels. The $18.9 M replacement school is set to open in August.
