Dedication ceremonies set for 11 new, replacement OCPS schools

October 5, 2018 – Dedication ceremonies for the 11 new, replacement or renovated schools that opened this fall will kick off October 8. Thanks to Orange County taxpayers, OCPS spent $260 million on the 2018 group of schools, which included one new school - Audubon Park School (K-8) - and ten replacements or comprehensive renovations: Lake Como School (K-8), Dover Shores Elementary, Frangus Elementary, Hidden Oaks Elementary, Hillcrest Elementary, Hungerford Elementary, Maxey Elementary, Union Park Elementary, Pine Hills Elementary and Sally Ride Elementary.

Each school features a single, secured entrance, separate bus and car loops, classroom and lab spaces, a media center with CCTV studio, an administration area, tot lot and youth lot playgrounds, a covered play area, green space and a cafeteria/multipurpose room. The two K-8 schools include gyms and outdoor athletic amenities. All schools have the latest technology, including interactive touch-panel TVs.

The dedication events each feature student performances, a ribbon cutting and remarks from district and school leaders.
