Village Park Elementary will open in Lake Nona in August 2021

The School Board on Tuesday approved the name for a new elementary school set to open in August 2021.

Village Park Elementary will be located at 12253 Lake Nona Gateway Rd. in Orlando. The school relieves Eagle Creek and Laureate Park elementary schools. The board considered three possible names suggested by the community: Village Park Elementary, Village Walk Elementary and Watermark Elementary. The name Village Park Elementary was chosen because it represents the names of subdivisions zoned to the school. The school was previously known as Site 43-E-SE-2. It was designed by Rhodes + Brito Architects and is being built by Pirtle Construction. The project budget is $25.8 million.
