EXCEPTIONAL EDUCATION
FEEDER PATTERNS

Prepared by the Routing Department
May 2020

The first consideration for Least Restrictive Environment (LRE) placement for any ESE student is the Home School, regardless of his/her Exceptional Education Label (Autism Spectrum Disorder, Emotional Behavioral Disorder, Intellectual Disabilities, etc.). We should avoid looking at a child's label and focus on the needs of the child.

The primary and dominant question is NOT whether the home school has a particular Exceptional Education program, BUT whether the specialized needs required for the child, as determined by the IEP team, can be met. Exceptional Education students are not to be removed from their home school unless the IEP team has determined . . . “that even with the provision of supplementary aids and services, the unique specialized needs of the child cannot be provided at the home school.” Any such decision should be made only after reviewing data.
